REPORT ON SANKRANTI CELEBRATION-2024

A major celebration observed in India, Sankranti, also called Makar Sankranti, marks the sun's entry into the sign of Makara, or Capricorn. Depending on the Hindu calendar, this auspicious occasion is celebrated with zeal and enthusiasm in different parts of India, each with its name and customs. It falls on either January 14th or January 15th. At its core, Sankranti is a celebration of the harvest season, marked by vibrant and joyous festivities that bring people together to express gratitude for the bountiful harvest and offer prayers for a prosperous agricultural season ahead. Additionally, the festival holds a prominent place in the worship of the sun god.

Sankranti, also known as Makar Sankranti, marks the transition of the sun into the Capricorn zodiac sign. One of the significant traditions during this festival is the lighting of bonfires. These bonfires symbolize the end of winter and the beginning of longer days.

Introduction:

The ANURAG PHARMACY COLLEGE with vibrant colours and festive cheer as students and staff come together to celebrate Makar Sankranti, marking the transition of the sun into the zodiac sign of Capricorn. The festivities included a spirited Rangoli competition and the embellishment of the college with traditional decorations on 10-01-24.

Rangoli Competition:

One of the highlights of the celebration was the Rangoli competition, which brought out the artistic flair of students. The campus grounds were adorned with intricate and colourful designs created by various teams, showcasing a blend of traditional and contemporary patterns. The participants exhibited creativity and teamwork, contributing to a visually stunning display that captured the essence of Makar Sankranti.

Decorations:

The entire college campus was transformed into a festive wonderland with vibrant decorations inspired by the theme of Makar Sankranti. Traditional motifs, kites, sugarcane, and flowers adorned the walls, creating a lively and joyous atmosphere. The college building itself became a canvas for creative expression, with every corner reflecting the spirit of the festival.

Student Engagement:

The celebration saw active participation from students across different departments, fostering a sense of unity and cultural exchange. Students not only showcased their artistic talents in the Rangoli competition but also actively contributed to the overall decoration of the campus. The collaborative effort of the student body was instrumental in creating a memorable and festive ambience.

Cultural Performances:

In addition to the rangoli competition and decorations, the celebration featured cultural performances such as traditional dances and music. Students presented lively performances that added to the festive spirit, creating a sense of cultural richness and diversity on campus.

Conclusion:

The MakarSankranti celebration at ANURAG PHARMACY COLLEGE was a resounding success, bringing together the college community in a joyous and culturally enriching experience. The rangoli competition, vibrant decorations, student engagement, and cultural performances collectively contributed to making the event a memorable and colourful affair. Such celebrations not only strengthen the cultural fabric of the institution but also provide a platform for students to showcase their talents and foster a sense of belonging within the college community.

The winners were awarded by the Principal Dr.M.Chinnaeswaraiiah, and faculty members who graced the celebrations.

REPORT ON BATHUKAMMA CELEBRATIONS -2023

Bathukamma is floral festival celebrated predominantly in Telangana and some parts of Andhra Pradesh. Every year this festival is celebrated as per Sathavahana calendar for nine days starting Mahalaya Amavasya (also known as MahalayaAmavasya or Pitru Amavasya) till Durgashtami, usually in October. It is celebrated for nine days during DurgaNavratri. It starts on the day of Mahalaya Amavasya and the 9-day festivities will culminate on "Saddula Bathukamma" or "Pedda Bathukamma" festival on Ashwayuja Navami, popularly known as Durgashtami which is two days before Dussehra.

This colorful floral festival of Telangana that symbolizes culture and identity has been celebrated at ANURAG PHARMACY COLLEGE with grandeur and enthusiasm amidst the lush green nature in the campus on 19-10-23 at 3pm. The women staff and the girl students emblazoned the premises with beautiful exotic flowers. The celebration manifested the eminence of nature, united spirit of the ANURAG PHARMACY COLLEGE, and the audacious fervor of the women staff and girls.

Around 80 Girl Students & Ladies Staff have Actively Participated in the Bathukamma making process and in the Energetic Bathukamma Dance

Principal Dr.M.Chinnaeswaraiyah, Dr.S.Jaya were constitutive in encouraging the women staff and the girl students to participate in this Blithesome Ceremony. The students and staff have actively participated in the Bathukamma decoration Competition followed by the Dance of the gorgeously dressed women and girls for the resonating Bathukamma Songs the Dances accentuated the festive mood symbolizing the zeal and spirit of ANURAG PHARMACY COLLEGE

As this Festival Celebrates the inherent relationship between earth, water & human beings, we immersed the Bathukamma's in the pond. This helps reinforce the ponds and helps it retain more water.
